4th Year BCom/BE(Hons) Student

Personal Statement

As a fourth-year conjoint student at the University of Auckland, I bring strong analytical, mathematical, and computational skills, with a passion for applying them to real-world business and operational challenges. I have developed the ability to analyse complex data, identify insights, and deliver practical solutions in ambiguous settings, supported by strong communication and collaboration skills. I am particularly excited by the opportunity at Amazon to contribute within the Vendor Services team, working across across vendor management, supply chain, and marketing to optimise vendor performance and drive business growth. I am eager to take ownership of impactful projects in a fast-paced and data-driven environment.
